

I'm more than just a Can

Building a Sustainable Environment
for Asheville

I could be a way to reduce solid waste, greenhouse emissions and combat global warming.

Recycling your used aluminum beverage cans will mean a reduction in landfill waste and associated costs, as well as a cleaner environment.

The City of Asheville is competing in this year's Cans for Cash Recycling Challenge – the national contest that rewards cities like ours for recycling used aluminum beverage cans.

Collection period is October 1-31, 2007.
